

MTM Oil Cooler

The MTM oil cooler can be controlled by the MTM software to turn on after tests and cool the test cell down to a user defined temperature. This allows faster turnaround between successive tests at high temperature.

Supplied Parts

Mechanical – Cooler, silicone oil, cooler switchbox (that automatically switches the cooler on and off as required).

Software – License File required